

Simply Downsized <anna=simplydownsized.com@send.aweber.com>

3/13/2024 5:44 PM

Downsizing News for April

To Jessica <support@hometransitionpros.com>

Hi Jessica!

It's April and the winter is officially behind us! If your winter months were spent dreaming about downsizing and making a move this year, then it's time to spring out of that chair and start making some moves in that direction!

If you're not sure where to start, we have some solid advice for you: Take a little time to work through a strategic planning process so that you can approach your move with confidence. Here's how we advise our clients to make a realistic plan that is based on your end goals and your personal work style, too:

Downsizing News

Plan For Downsizing

Just like any big project, a downsizing move will go much more smoothly if you have a solid plan in place. Follow these pro tips to help develop a plan that works for your project, your goals, and (maybe most importantly) your personality!

Read More

Self-Storage for Downsizing

Some downsizers are tempted to store furnishings and belongings instead of letting them go. While we would never endorse long-term storage to delay decision making, strategic use of short-term storage can be a real lifesaver!

Read More

How to Recycle Old Clothing

Some sources say that the average US citizen throws away 70 pounds of clothing and other textiles annually. Follow these pro tips for re-homing, repurposing and recycling your unneeded clothing.

Read More

We'll save you time, energy, and money.

Are you thinking about downsizing this spring?

Call us first for free advice and experienced guidance for your downsizing move.

Schedule a Free Call

Anna Novak

Simply Downsized

Serving the Washington DC Metro Area

Anna@SimplyDownsized.com

6503 Waterway Dr
Falls Church VA 22044
US

Unsubscribe | Change Subscriber Options